The image shows a musical score for a Latin text. It consists of seven staves of music. The first staff begins with a large 'A' and the number '7.'. The text is written below the staves, with some words on a line above the staff. The music is written in a style that uses square notes and stems, typical of early printed music. There are various musical symbols like clefs, bar lines, and accidentals. The text is in Latin and appears to be a translation of a biblical passage.

Ma chair est vraiment une nourriture, et mon sang est vraiment une boisson : celui qui mange ma chair et bois mon sang demeure en moi et moi en lui.
